

Getting ready for the homecoming

What is the most important thing about your parent's homecoming? That's easy to answer: showing your parent how much you love him or her. Below is a special card for you to design. Fill in the sentences and fill in the frame with your drawings.

Dear _____

I missed you so much!

Most of all I missed _____

You are so special to me because _____

I will always love you, forever and ever.

Hugs and Kisses,